Interested in honeybees?
Want to know more about them?
Have bees already but would like to improve your knowledge?
Want to meet other beekeepers?

Then the answer could be:

Preliminary Course in Beekeeping

This course will be run by local beekeepers from the Randalstown & District Beekeepers Association at CAFRE's Greenmount Campus, Antrim, commencing Tuesday 7th February 2012. The course will consist of an introductory evening, classroom and practical sessions followed by an assessment in May.

The all-inclusive cost of the course is £100. Places are limited, so book early to avoid disappointment. Minimum age is sixteen years.
